Presumption of Innocence and Notice to Employers

Individuals named above, whether arrested or issued citations, are entitled to the presumption of innocence. It may be a violation of state law to discriminate against a job applicant because of an arrest or conviction record. As a general rule, an employer may refuse to hire an applicant on the basis of a conviction only if the circumstances of the conviction substantially relate to the particular job. For more information, see Wis. Stat. Sec. 111.335 or consult with your attorney.
